

Message to Thyatira: Don't Compromise Be Morally Pure

Revelation 2:18–29

1. The same problems we encountered at Pergamum began to develop in Thyatira. It was the presence of a tragic toleration: allowing _____ to coexist with the _____ in the church.
2. This is the first time Jesus Christ called Himself the _____ of _____ in these seven letters.
3. Christ told them, I know your _____ - your love, faithfulness, service, and endurance.
4. Ephesus would not _____ evil but had lost her first love. Thyatira was strong in love but _____ evil.
5. Jezebel was probably not her actual name, but the mere mention of this _____ woman from the Old Testament would have immediately characterized her presence for the believers.
6. The church at Thyatira had a wonderful _____ with a great spirit and a great _____ of spreading the gospel and ministering effectively.
7. In Thyatira compromise was _____ by the church since it lacked the discernment and courage to hold Jezebel accountable.
8. Our God is a _____ God, but His _____ will not always keep calling for repentance.
9. Tolerance easily becomes _____ then it becomes sin.
10. Often heresy sounds a lot like the _____. In fact, the most dangerous heresy is the one that sounds the most like the _____.
11. Jezebel's bed of sin will become a bed of _____. The pleasures of sin will give place to the pains of _____.
12. The children of Jezebel are not her literal children, but _____ "children" who have committed themselves to her _____ teaching.
13. God always has a _____ remnant.
14. Satan always is working to _____ or _____ us and keep us away from God.

15. This is a strong reminder that our _____ is not freedom to do anything we choose to do, nor is it the freedom to be legalistic by requiring of others what the Scripture does not require.
16. The Lord reminded them that He had given them the _____ truth, and that it was sufficient for them.
17. Jesus' promise of authority over the nations speaks of the prominence and power given to _____ in the millennial kingdom.
18. Verse 27 indicates both the authority and the _____ with which that rule is to occur.
19. The promise is then that the church at Thyatira, _____ to the calling of God, will eventually receive the Morning Star.
