

Message to Laodicea: Repent of Self-Sufficiency

Revelation 3:14-22

Laodicea was an important, prosperous, and wealthy city known for its _____ schools, flourishing _____ as well as its medical and _____ industries.

More important for this passage, any water piped into Laodicea had grown _____ by the time of its arrival.

Jesus was not _____ by God but is the source and origin of all creation.

When you want to make something _____ you mix together hot and cold – you _____ both properties.

The Lord Jesus Christ sketches three parallel pictures of the church of Laodicea's life. First, the church said, I am _____.

Second, the church thought it was _____ with plenty of righteous character.

Third, the church supposed itself to have spiritual _____.

Even sadder than these deficiencies is Christ's declaration that they didn't _____ it.

The metaphor to buy does not mean that spiritual benefits may be _____ or _____.

Christ by his _____ supplies them freely.

The price of the gold is not mentioned, but surely it involved the _____ which comes through repentance, faith, and submission to the Lord.

The only way to have these garments is through the provision of _____, symbolized here as covering their shameful nakedness (that is their lack of righteousness).

They needed to come to the Lord and buy _____ salve for their blindness if they wished to see.

The Lord's criticism is based on his _____.

Christ not only wants to provide gold, clothing, and sight to this congregation; he wants them to enjoy his _____, his _____.

Jesus promised that if we open ourselves to Him, He will enter our lives and _____ with us.

Since the words of the risen Lord to John on Patmos are indeed what the Spirit says to the churches, then we _____ them to our _____.
